

1546-1601

TYCHO BRAHE, Astronomer

Feb 18, 1546

Martin Luther died in EISLEBEN, Germany 2/18/1546

Feb 18, 1546

Martin Luther, leader of the Protestant Reformation in Germany, died.

1546

SCHMALKALDIC WAR

Charles V, in formal alliance with the papacy, began ~~the~~ war to crush Lutheranism in rebel German principalities; supported by troops from Italy and the Netherlands. Won decisive victory at MÜHLBERG in Saxony in 1547, but armed victory did not stamp out reformed religion in northern Germany.

1546

Dome of St. Peter's designed 1546 by Italian Renaissance
Artist Michelangelo Buonarroti.

Completed 1950 by Italian
Architect GIACOMO DELLA PORTA

1546

The Danish nobleman TYCHO BRAHE was born.

Feb 18, 1546

Martin Luther, leader of the Protestant Reformation in Germany, died.

1546

Luther died. Outbreak of Schmalkaldic war,

1546

Luther died at the beginning of 1546.

1546-1601

TYCHO BRAHE

Refused to accept Copernican Theory.
However, though sun revolved around Earth, the other planets
revolved around the Sun.

1546-1564

1624-1633

St. Peter's at Rome

Bernini designed & built the canopy over the Altar.

1546

At Council of Trent, 53 prelates made a decree declaring that the APOCRYPHAL books, together with unwritten tradition are of God, and are to be received and venerated
as the Word of God

April 8, 1546

Council of Trent under control & direction of the Pope declared tradition (or the unwritten word) and the APOCRYPHA to be Canonical and authoritative
i.e. divinely inspired.

Apr 8th, 1546

At Council of Trent Jerome's Revised Latin was declared to be the authentic Bible of the Roman Church.

1546

Council of Trent

Said that the 45 Old Testament and 27 New Testament writings
"entire and with all their parts," are for us the sacred
and canonical Scriptures,
and the inspired word of God.
These #'s count the Book of Jeremiah and Lamentations as one.

See "The New American Bible" ^{sponsored} by Bishops